

Postdoctoral Research Scholar, Arizona State University, Department of Psychology

The Department of Psychology at Arizona State University invites applications for a Postdoctoral Research Scholar to join the Military Social Science Laboratory (MiSSiLe) under the supervision of Dr. Rebecca K. Blais. The postdoctoral research scholar will be involved in several laboratory projects examining risk for posttraumatic stress and suicide among US military service members/veterans while developing their own program of research. The ideal candidate will have experience conducting research with military samples, strong quantitative and writing abilities, as well as aspirations for a research-oriented career.

The position is full-time, fiscal-year (12-month), benefits-eligible appointments with no tenure implications. This position is 100% research. For clinical candidates, there are no built-in clinical hours, though gaining clinical hours for licensure may be possible through the clinics at ASU outside of your committed time in the postdoctoral position. Anticipated start date is August 2022.

The qualifications for this position are: (1) must have earned a Ph.D. in psychology within the past two years, (2) evidence of grant history, submission, (3) experience with the military in the form of research or clinical service, and (4) evidence of advanced statistical training. Clinical or counseling specialization is preferred but not necessary. Applicants with a PhD in quantitative methods, developmental psychology, or social psychology will be equally competitive.

To apply, please submit the following as pdf(s) through Interfolio at <http://apply.interfolio.com/98161> (1) cover letter, (2) a curriculum vitae, (3) statement of research interests, (4) two representative publications, (5) a statement addressing how your past and/or potential contributions to diversity and inclusion will advance ASU's commitment to inclusive excellence, and (6) three letters of recommendation to be uploaded by your recommenders to Interfolio directly. Email and paper applications will not be accepted.

Inquiries concerning the search should be addressed to the Chair of the Search Committee: Dr. Rebecca K. Blais, PhD. at Rebecca.Blais@asu.edu. Please mention that you are applying for the MiSSiLe postdoctoral appointment.

Initial deadline for receipt of complete applications is December 3, 2021. If not filled, review of complete applications will continue every week thereafter until the search is closed.

Salary range is $53,760.00 to $54,540.00 depending on previous experience.
