The Department of Psychology invites applications for a part-time (with potential to move to full-time) Clinical Assistant Professor to assist with the development and coordination of the department’s master’s program in Addiction Psychology (MS AP). This benefits-eligible, non-tenure eligible appointment is renewable on a fiscal year basis contingent upon satisfactory performance, availability of resources, and the needs of the unit. Anticipated start date is January 2023.

The successful candidate will be expected to: teach courses related to the MS AP’s curriculum; oversee admissions to the program; provide advising services to students and guidance on future licensure; assist in maintaining the MS AP program’s practicum training requirement by working with substance use disorder treatment agencies to identify, develop, and coordinate practicum placement sites that meet program needs; pursue state and national certification for the program; serve on committees relevant to the MS AP program; maintain program handbook and other resources as appropriate. Successful candidate must have the ability to obtain a valid Arizona driver’s license prior to start date.

Minimum Qualifications include:

- Doctorate in clinical psychology or closely related field from an accredited university at the time of hire
- State-licensed psychologist or license-eligible
- Experience supervising psychology and/or addiction service providers
- Teaching experience in a university setting

Desirable Qualifications:

- On-campus and online teaching experience
- Hold or be eligible for one of the following: state-licensed independent substance abuse counselor, OR Master Addiction Counselor credential through NAADAC, OR board certification through ABPP in Addiction Psychology,
- Two years supervisory and service provision experience across diverse clientele
- Demonstrated success meeting the needs of diverse student populations or reaching out to diverse communities

To apply, please submit the following as pdf(s) through Interfolio at http://apply.interfolio.com/112237: 1) a cover letter which describes your interest in the position and how prior knowledge and experience meet the minimum and desired qualifications, 2) curriculum vitae; 3) evidence of teaching experience; 4) a statement addressing how your past and/or potential contributions to diversity and inclusion will advance ASU’s commitment to inclusive excellence; and 5) three letters of recommendation uploaded by your recommenders to Interfolio directly. Email and paper applications will not be accepted.
