Fall 2024 MS ABA Program Admission Checklist

These instructions are for applying to the Master of Science in Applied Behavior Analysis \(MS ABA\) program in the Department of Psychology at Arizona State University.

Application Deadlines

We currently accept students for Fall only; there is no spring start date for this program. The application process is initiated a year in advance of starting the program. We will start taking applications on September 1st, 2023. Application deadlines are as follows:

- Priority deadline: February 1, 2024
- Final deadline: May 15, 2024

Incomplete applications are not considered. All materials must be received by the department in order to be reviewed for admission.

Review of applications will begin as early as February 1, 2024. Applications will continue to be accepted and reviewed on a monthly basis until the limited class size is filled

Application

The MS ABA program requires the following application:

- The Department of Psychology MS ABA SlideRoom Application ($10 fee for all applicants)
- The ASU Graduate Application – This application is only required if you are admitted to the program ($70 fee for US citizens/ permanent residents/ DACA; $115 for international students)

Important Notes on Application Process

- Applicants must complete the MS ABA SlideRoom Application to be considered for admission.
- If admitted to the program applicants will be notified and will then be required to submit the ASU Graduate Application.

- The system sends out emails with the application ID number and the applicant's ASU Affiliate (10-digit) ID number only after submitting the ASU Graduate Application.
- The department recommends applicants aim to complete all items a month prior to the deadline or first review date.
- Letters of recommendation are collected through the SlideRoom application system. Applicants will be asked to provide names and email addresses of at least 2 references. Letter of recommendation requests will be autogenerated from the SlideRoom system as soon as the references' information is entered in the application.
