

Postdoctoral Research Scholar, Arizona State University, Department of Psychology

The Department of Psychology at Arizona State University invites applications for a Postdoctoral Research Scholar to join the Canine Science Collaboratory (CSC <https://psychology.asu.edu/research/labs/canine-science-collaboratory>) under the supervision of Dr. Clive Wynne (clivewynne.com). The postdoctoral research scholar will engage in research of mutual interest in the behavior of dogs, and potentially other canine species, in human contexts. The ideal candidate will have experience conducting behavioral research with dogs, strong leadership and organizational skills, demonstrated quantitative and writing abilities, as well as aspirations for a research-oriented career.

The position is full-time, fiscal year (12-month), benefits-eligible appointment with no tenure implications. This position is 100% research. Anticipated start date is April 2024.

Candidates who are non-US citizens will need to be eligible for a J-1 Scholar visa status for the duration of the postdoctoral period. The CSC does not support H1B visa status.

Minimum Qualifications include:

1. Must have earned a Ph.D. (within the last 5 years or anticipated by the beginning of the appointment) in psychology, animal behavior, behavioral ecology, or related discipline.
2. Demonstrated commitment to working with faculty, staff, students, and communities to advance the principles of the ASU Charter.

Desirable Qualifications:

1. Experience working with dogs and/or other canid species.
2. Experience training and/or supervising laboratory personnel.
3. Familiarity with statistical computing methods and tools.
4. Candidates with strong statistical and computer programming skills, experience with social behavior in mammals or insects, and knowledge of Med-PC V are particularly competitive.

To apply, please submit the following as pdf(s) through Interfolio at <http://apply.interfolio.com/141331>:

1. Cover letter
2. Curriculum vitae
3. Statement of research interests
4. Two representative publications
5. Three letters of recommendation to be uploaded by your recommenders to Interfolio directly.

Email and paper applications will not be accepted.

Inquiries concerning the search should be addressed to the Chair of the Search Committee: Dr. Clive Wynne at CWynne1@asu.edu.

Application deadline is March 22, 2024. If not filled, review of complete applications will continue every week thereafter until the search is closed.
