

Social Psychology Area Graduate Admissions 2020-2021

Graduate students are admitted to the Social Psychology program generally speaking, under the supervision of one or more primary mentors.

Faculty Recruiting for Primary Mentorship

The professors listed below will review applications from students interested in working under their primary mentorship for admission in Fall 2020.

- Adam Cohen
- S. Virginia Kwan
- Michelle "Lani" Shiota
- Michael Varnum

Multiple Mentorship

Applicants are also encouraged to list other faculty with whom their interests overlap, as we encourage students to work in multiple labs during their time at ASU. This may include additional Social Psychology faculty, as well as faculty in other "areas" of Psychology.
